

Keith Naylor

Fact Sheet

Musical Style: Keith is a story teller using music to paint pictures of life in the day to day experiences of everyday people. His music is driven by the acoustic guitar and is colored by lyrics that say what you want to say but weren't quite sure how to put it into words. He has been compared to the likes of Pierce Pettis, David Wilcox and Eric Clapton.

Facts of Interest: Keith resides in Stone Mountain Ga, where he lives with his wife and five children (five left at home of ten). He's not Mormon or Catholic and does know what causes it. He just likes kids. He recorded his first album in 1997 and has released three more albums since. He currently plays throughout the Atlanta Area and anywhere else that might have him except the Daytona motorcycle rally. He worked with troubled teens for twenty five years and gleams many of his songs from relationships developed during this time. He has also lead worship at Christ Community Church in Stone Mountain for the last twenty years. He has shared the stage with Pierce Pettis, Shaun Mullins and John Mayer. These were really just fundraisers I played at with these guys and I didn't

Discography

Lippnikkies: Acoustic Songs from the Junkyard (1996)

Asiam: Pain is Relative (1998)

Asiam: Living in the Forever Now (1999)

The Dreams of Children (2006)

Booking Information

www.asiam.net/booking.htm

Keith plays at concerts, weddings, conferences, house concerts, corporate events, restaurants, fundraisers and worship events.

For more information keithanaylor@asiam.net

Keith's CDs available at

Asiam.net

Cdbaby.com and Amazon.com

Itunes

Keith's MySpace

www.myspace.com/keithnaylor

Keith's Schedule

www.asiam.net/concerts.htm

Visit Keith's web site at www.asiam.net